Several parishioners contributed to and wrote parts of parish history. Walter Toussaint wrote the earliest version. Sandy Williams wrote and kept a running history. Therese Cox updated and wrote the 50th anniversary version. Jim Scharf compiled from all sources to update to 2016, our 75th anniversary year. Condensed versions have been produced for the South Charleston History (1995), Blessed Sacrament Parish Golden Jubilee, (1941-1991), on Oct. 6, 1991; and Faith in the Mountains: A History of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston 1850-2000.

Diane Lordan authored “Pastors Serving Blessed Sacrament Church, 1941-2016”, and “History of Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall, 2000-2003”. Condensations of the text a photo change were made to fit this history.

Please report any glaring errors or history that you feel need to be present in our history. Call Jim Scharf at 304-744-0622 or e-mail at WVScharf@suddenlink.net

Gifts and Donations

You will find gift and donation information for the new Worship Space project in a booklet titled “Blessed Sacrament Worship Space Memorial Book”. Similar information for the Parish Hall project are placed on plaques at the gift site. The information on the Worship Space windows is presented in a small brochure called “Blessed Sacrament Parish; Window Dedication Ceremony (Oct. 1, 2005) as well as on the windows themselves. See office personnel for further information. We will endeavor to help you find any missing information on gifts or donations for these projects and any other givings in memory of loved ones.
