8 Things to Know about the Restoration of Communion from the Cup

1. Communion from the Cup will be available beginning on Holy Thursday.
2. As always, it is optional since whenever one receives either the consecrated bread or consecrated wine, one receives both the Body and the Blood of Jesus. The Church has said that doing so is a fuller sign, not a requirement nor a source of more grace.
3. When one approaches the Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, one bows his or her head, responds by taking the chalice into one's hands, and saying "Amen" before taking a sip, and returning the chalice to the minister.
4. Out of charity and genuine love of neighbor, one who is coughing, sneezing, has a runny nose, is feverish, or is the least bit sick, ought never to receive communion from the cup or communion on the tongue.
5. Although the chalice is wiped after each communicant, there are no assurances that germs will not be transmitted. The alcohol does not guarantee this either.
6. Since the consecrated wine must be consumed afterwards, it is possible we will run out until we get a better idea of how much wine to use.
7. It is almost certain that we will need more help distributing communion. Please prayerfully consider volunteering.
8. Please complete the Survey Monkey poll on our website or on a table in the Gathering Space.

3 Things to Know about Exchanging the Sign of Peace.

1. Also, at your own discretion people may hug, kiss, one shake hands during the Sign of Peace. Peace is exchanged only with those close by.
2. Please read the Body Language of those around you. Some prefer not to physically exchange a sign with others. We need to respect that.
3. One doesn't move around trying to greet everyone everywhere as if this is essential. As has always been the case since its restoration some 60 + years ago, the exchange of this sign is both encouraged and entirely optional.

HOLY WEEK 2023

Holy Week is the most important time of the year for the Catholic Church. The entire reason for Lent is to prepare us to celebrate Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil as a community of faith. We celebrate the Paschal Mystery – the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ – in word and sacrament, in voice and silence, and in actions and symbols. Here is something of what to expect.

Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday includes the blessing of palms and the reading of the Passion according to St. Matthew (this year). Beginning in fourth century Jerusalem and spreading throughout the Church, Christians have processed with palm branches to remember and experience the Triumphal Entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. Mass will begin in the Parish Hall for those able to walk easily. It includes blessing of palms, reading of the first gospel, and a procession into the Church as we sing. The Passion includes multiple readers and parts for the congregation to say aloud. Be sure to burn or bring back any palms from past years. Saturday April 1 at 5:30 pm and Sunday April 2 at 9:00 and 11:30 am.

Holy Thursday (April 6 at 6:00 pm) is a commemoration of the Last Supper. We remember with awe the humility of Jesus in washing the feet of the apostles and His generosity in giving us the Sacrament of his Body and Blood that we call the Eucharist. After the entrance, the parish will be presented with the holy oils blessed earlier in the week at Sacred Heart Basilica by Bishop Mark Brennan. These oils will be used in the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and anointing in the coming year.

The Liturgy on this night includes two other special ceremonies. The entirely optional ritual of foot-washing has been done in a variety of ways through the years. This year (unless he is called in at the last minute to substitute somewhere else) Fr. John will wash the feet of 12 parishioners as did Jesus at the Last Supper according to Saint John. Volunteers will be sought from each Mass of different ages and sexes.

After communion and prayer, the priest, servers and choir will process through the church to the Chapel of Repose (which will be in the Hallway to the Parish Hall) and placed in a tabernacle. Everyone is invited to stop by and visit our Lord Jesus present in the Eucharist, to stay with him as did the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane. Be sure to sign up for a time to be present and pray. All depart in silence.

To the Men of Blessed Sacrament,

The Dismas Club is the men's organization of Blessed Sacrament Parish. The organization serves the parish in various ways, including maintenance projects, pancake breakfasts, serving hot dogs at the Easter Egg hunt etc. We meet the second Sunday of every month primarily to go over requests involved with such work. We also have a social hour after the meeting (you can stay or leave) which often involves kibitzing and most times, card playing.

There is an e-mail list we use to solicit help from the men on the list and inform them of our activities. If you have not been receiving emails concerning our club's activities and wish to be placed on that list, please let me know by email: donbecher@gmail.com. If you have any special skills (for example electrical or woodworking) we would also appreciate knowing. If you do not wish to be placed on the list, you need not respond.

The organization is a good way for men of the parish over 18 years old to get to know and interact with other men of the parish, so if you haven't been receiving emails and wish to, please do let me know.

Our next meeting is this Sunday at 7:00pm. Come join us in room 6 for the evening – no commitments needed.

Don Becher, Dismas Club Secretary

Coffee, Cocoa, and Questions – March 19th between the Masses

Questions to be answered by Fr. Paul in the Parish Hall from 10:15 to 11:15 am

1. Can a priest withhold communion from a politician who supports every abortion bill or a healthcare worker who is forced to help terminate a pregnancy?
2. In his letters Saint Paul tells us to admonish one another to help grow in faith. How can we do this without being a busybody?
3. Why is there a crucifix in plain sight in every Catholic Church?
4. My sister was married by a judge and therefore was not sacramentally married. If he has been married by a Protestant Minister would her marriage be a sacrament?
5. Why did Jesus have to die to open the gates of heaven? Couldn't God, in his infinite power, have simply opened heaven to worthy souls?

From the Director of Religious Education

Youth Group News

We made pretzels for Lent!

And you can, too!

Here's our recipe:

Ingredients:

1 package yeast .25 oz
1 1/2 cups warm water
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon table salt
4 cups flour
kosher salt for sprinkling

Instructions:

Preheat your oven to 425°F. Mix yeast, warm water, sugar, and salt in a large mixer bowl. Add flour, one cup at a time, and mix with dough hook until it forms a ball. Divide into pieces about the size of a golf ball, and shape into the form of arms crossed in prayer. Place on a baking sheet. (We lined ours with parchment paper and sprayed them with cooking spray.) Sprinkle the top with kosher salt and bake for about 15 minutes or until they're the color you like.

This weekend is Hygiene Sunday!

You're invited to bring any of following items to place in one of the bins in the Gathering Space. The Youth Group will assemble your offerings into personal hygiene kits for those in addiction recovery and other situations of emergency need:

Shampoo/conditioner

Toothbrushes/toothpaste

Spiritual Icebreakers and Soup Starters 36

Icebreakers give us something to talk about. Soup starters make for a good start. Here is some spiritual kindling to use, think about, and pray with this week.

STORY:

A university professor went off searching for the meaning of life. After several month and many miles, he came to the home of a holy hermit and asked to be enlightened. The holy man invited his visitor into his humble dwelling and began to serve him tea. The tea filled the cup, overflowed onto the saucer, then onto the table and finally onto the floor. The professor watched it until he could stand it no longer. Stop! It is full. No more will go in.” The hermit answered, Like this cup you are full of your own ideas, opinions, and answers. How can I teach you unless you first empty your cup?”

POEM and PRAYER: Flow

“Those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty.

The water that I will give, will become in you a spring of water

gushing up with eternal life.” —John 4.14

I'm thirsty.

I've drunk, oh, from spigots and bottles
and hoses and fountains, piped in from vendors,
drunk in a thousand places—and still thirsted.

Not my lips, but my soul.

The water I seek isn't for soup or laundry:

I'm seeking you.

I have no bucket, no special ability, just thirst.

And I come to this spring, bubbling up

from the deep-water table of you, God,

this powerful flow, this living stream of water

gushing up in me, given, free, flowing,

your love rising from the depths unhindered,

this power to live with love and courage,

this joy and hope, this clear, sparkling beauty,

this living stream of your life, Beloved,

your eternal life, flowing through me,

not subject to weather or commerce,

or my doing or not doing, but steady, constant.

This is eternal life: not far-off or later,

but here and now, and infinite.

I am the well. You are the water.

Flow in me.

Steve Garnaas-Holmes Unfolding Light www.unfoldinglight.net.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus Christ,
you have power over life and death.
You know what is uncertain and obscure,
and our thoughts and feelings
are no secret from you.
Cleanse me from my hidden faults,
for I have done evil and you have seen it.
Day by day my life draws nearer to its end.
You know how frail I am, in soul and in body.
Give me strength, Lord, in my weakness and uphold me in my sufferings. Amen.

— Saint Ephraim the Syrian, Deacon

MYSTIC MORSEL:

The great flood of divine love never ceases. Instead, it flows on and on without stopping. It flows on and on effortlessly and sweetly and without failing until, finally, our tiny vessel becomes full and spills over.

–Mechthild of Magdeburg (1208-1282)

Third Sunday of Lent

Ex 17:3-7 | Rom 5:1-2, 5-8 | Jn 4:5-42

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Even St. Teresa of Calcutta experienced a period of “spiritual dryness.” We pray, we go to Mass faithfully, we serve others – yet at times God’s presence may seem elusive. Like the Israelites, we may ask, “Is the Lord in our midst or not?” As we enter the third Sunday of Lent, today’s readings assure us that God remains with us even during those times we may feel spiritually parched. In Exodus, water flows from a rock to satisfy the people. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the Samaritan woman at the well: “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” The woman, a sinner and an outcast, recognizes Jesus as Messiah, and it changes her life. Even when we don’t “feel” God’s presence, we can rest assured that Jesus stands beside us. He is our redemption and our Hope, and “Hope does not disappoint.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today’s Gospel, Jesus breaks with custom by talking to a woman – a Samaritan woman, no less. He “sees” her – knowing she has been married five times before and is living with a man not her husband. Yet he chooses to reveal to her his identity as the Messiah and offers her “living water.” But it doesn’t end there. The woman at the well goes forth and shares her experience with others. Many more came to believe in the Messiah based on her testimony. What an unlikely disciple! We may feel that we, too, are unlikely disciples: We are sinners, we’ve made mistakes, perhaps we feel we are unworthy to “represent” Jesus to others. But nothing is further from the truth. Jesus invites us not only to partake of the living water but to share it with others so that all may believe.

ACTION Put a note on your mirror or bedside: “Hope does not disappoint.” Each morning, remind yourself that Jesus is the source of our hope, and try to think of ways to share this hope with others.
